

Third Capacity Building Workshop for College & University Teachers on Gender Studies on 14-15, Dec. 2011

The third workshop on facilitation skills of college faculty to initiate discussions and design events around gender issues was organized by Research Centre for Women's Studies and Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research (PGSR) of SNTD Women's University in Collaboration with The Population First on 14-15 December, 2011 at the PGSR, Churchgate Campus. The modules have been prepared by Dr. A.L. Sharada (Media and Culture), Dr. Gita Chadha (Gender and Patriarchy), Prof. Veena Poonacha (Feminist Research Methodology) and Prof. Vibhuti Patel (Gender Based Violence). Teachers from SNTD Women's University from Maniben Nanavati College for Women, PVDT College of Education for Women, B.M. Ruia College for Women and from University of Mumbai-A. D. Kalshekar College, Bhavans College, Elphinston College, Sophia College, Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan and Gokhale College took part. The workshop highlighted concept of power, critical theory, important of rereading Canonical knowledge with gender lens, politics of knowledge generation, democratization of knowledge, myopia of male stream theories, cooperative learning, constructively and standpoint epistemology, self-reflexivity in feminist research.

The earlier two workshops were well attended and well received by undergraduate teachers from various disciplines and colleges of the city